

Open Source Program Terms of Agreement

- Program benefits are provided only to project leads and core project committers.
- Program status and benefits are valid for one year and can be renewed if your project still meets the program requirements.
- You may use the program benefits solely for developing non-commercial open-source projects.
- You may not share free licenses with any third parties.